A Quiet Heart Before God

“Be still, and know that I am God.” — Psalm 46:10 (KJV)

Life can become busy very quickly. There are responsibilities to carry, decisions to make, people to care for, and circumstances that sometimes leave us feeling overwhelmed. In the midst of all the noise, God reminds us to be still and remember who He is.

Being still does not mean that our problems disappear. It means that we stop long enough to place our worries into the hands of the One who is greater than our worries. We may not know what tomorrow will bring, but we can know the One who holds tomorrow.

The Lord sees every burden we carry and understands every concern of our hearts. He invites us to bring those burdens to Him in prayer. We do not have to carry them alone.
